THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL

1916

The mission of the Christian Church can never be reduced to a narrow, anti-sect, anti-dogma, crusade, with a propaganda directed against sympathetic movements of seemingly less apostolic conformity. In her purposes are mirrored all of the objectives in the heart of our Leader, Christ. Her value to the world will not be determined by the number of her differences from others, but in the number of her unities with Him.—Frank G. Coffin.

MAKING THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL

* * * *

The making of THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL represents a vast amount of real hard work. One gets the book for twenty-five cents and thinks that it must be easily made to cost such a small sum.

* * * *

Besides a hundred or more circular letters and as many as seventy-five mailed out by the Woman's Boards for Home and Foreign Missions, more than two hundred typewritten letters were mailed out from the office of the editor in the interest of the present number.

* * * *

Every report had to be re-written, and that of itself required many days of hard toil. This writing was done by the Convention stenographer, to whose care and painstaking, much of the correctness of THE ANNUAL is to be credited.

* * * *

The preparation of the matter for the Woman's Department was under the supervision of Mrs. Lulu Craig Helfenstein and Mrs. Alice M. Burnett. The proof of this department also received its final reading by them.

* * * *

The proof-reading was done by Charlotte L. Nauerth, the proof-reader for The Christian Publishing Association, whose ability and care counted greatly in the present number. The final reading was by the editor, that additions and final corrections might be made, and the figures gotten for the historical statement.

* * * *

The typesetting required days of hard and patient labor, the value of which cannot be reckoned by a mere statement.

* * * *

The making-up of the book required fifteen days, which was done by the experienced and competent, Pressley E. Zartmann, to say nothing of the anxiety and watchfulness exercised in getting the facts and the forms as they should be.

* * * *

The work of the Manager is largely to come, for to him the orders are to be addressed and cared for in the office.

DO NOT THINK

Do NOT THINK that names make no difference with God.
They do.

Do NOT THINK that better surroundings always make better lives.
They do not.

Do NOT THINK that this CHRISTIAN ANNUAL is free from inaccuracies.
It is not.

Do NOT THINK that this CHRISTIAN ANNUAL does not contain much new and valuable matter.
It does.

Do NOT THINK that it is easy work to prepare matter for a CHRISTIAN ANNUAL.
It is not.

Do NOT THINK that the editor did not do his best to secure full and accurate reports from all the conferences.
He did.

Do NOT THINK that he did not have to write from one to five times for some reports.
He did.

Do NOT THINK that some conference secretaries did not reply promptly and fully to his requests.
They did.

Do NOT THINK that the reports did not have to be rewritten before giving them to the printer.
They did.

Do NOT THINK that it was not a real pleasure to prepare and arrange matter for this ANNUAL.
It was.

Do NOT THINK that the editor has any spirit of complaint against those whose replies were delayed.
He has not.

Do NOT THINK that because some conferences are not reported in full that it is because they did not want to be.
They did.

Do NOT THINK that conference secretaries are always in possession of the things that should go into THE ANNUAL.
They are not.

Do NOT THINK that after THE ANNUAL is printed that you should call attention to omissions of names, when they should have been given before.
You should not.

Do NOT THINK that the man in the office can make a CHRISTIAN ANNUAL what it ought to be without the reports from conferences.
He cannot.

Do NOT THINK that the conference secretary can report to the editor of THE ANNUAL unless the church clerks have reported to him.
He cannot.

Do NOT THINK that the woman's work as reported in this ANNUAL represents all they do.
It does not.

Do NOT THINK that a minister or church clerk can get along as well without a CHRISTIAN ANNUAL as they can with one.
They cannot.

Do NOT THINK that because you already know much that you do not need to know more.
You do.

Do NOT THINK that what this ANNUAL contains will not add to your store of knowledge.
It will.

Do NOT THINK that the twenty-five cents you pay for a CHRISTIAN ANNUAL pays for the printing and mailing of it to you.
It does not.

Do NOT THINK that the foreman of the press room and all the attaches of the printery did not co-operate in the preparation of this ANNUAL.
They did.

Do NOT THINK that much of the correctness of the present number is not due to the efficiency and ability of the Convention stenographer.
It is.

Do NOT THINK that all the inaccuracies found in this CHRISTIAN ANNUAL are due to careless supervision.
They are not.

Do NOT THINK that this CHRISTIAN ANNUAL will help you if you do not use it, and use it often.
It will not.

Do NOT THINK that the money invested in a CHRISTIAN ANNUAL is a poor investment.
It is not.

Do NOT THINK that the Christians are losing ground or failing in their mission.
They are not.

Do NOT THINK that what the Christians have and what they do are inferior to what others have and do.
They are not.

Do NOT THINK that you can be as unsectarian in a sectarian church as you can be in an unsectarian one.
You cannot.

Do NOT THINK that salvation is obtainable independent of Bible requirements.
It is not.

Do NOT THINK that you can do good work in one church while your heart is in another.
You cannot.

Do NOT THINK that when the editor wrote to a preacher two plain questions about his Sunday-school and he replied about the collection and overlooked the questions, that he felt deeply religious.
He did not.

Do NOT THINK that when the editor wrote to a church clerk, asking him to name the number of members in his church, and he replied, "Our membership is weak," that he was in a good humor.
He was not.

Do NOT THINK that there ever was an introduction to a CHRISTIAN ANNUAL just like this one.
There never was.

Do NOT THINK that there ever will be another introduction to a CHRISTIAN ANNUAL just like this one.
There never will be.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY

One of the most suggestive signs for any institution, is the way in which those who have it in charge believe in its possibilities. This year the Home Mission Board have shown that they believe in the loyalty of the churches by increasing the appropriation for home missions. Already the Woman's Home Mission Board have shown the wisdom of this, in that they have said to the Home Mission Department that they will take the Frontier work.

We are planning to do more for the Frontier than we have ever done. The City Church Extension is receiving more aid than we have been giving to it. Some of the churches where aid has been given have been cut off, and in other places we have felt that it is wise to reduce the appropriation. The policy of the Board is to concentrate a little more.

During the past year thirty-five points have received aid from this Department. In these places there has been work done that cannot be estimated from the statistical point of view. The Christian Endeavor Society of one of the churches, Raleigh, N. C., did excellent prison work. The church at Toronto, Canada, has arranged to carry on mission work in another part of the city. Very frequently where churches have received aid from this Department, they have seen the value of it and have assisted in the organization of other missions. Notable instances of this have been the churches at Norfolk, Va., Dayton, and Springfield, Ohio.

The new points to receive aid the coming year are: Fredrica, Md.; Tilton, Ill.; Winterset, Ia.; Bangor, Me.; the new church at Franklinton, N. C.; and Lamberts Point, Norfolk, Va.

There are 214 churches in the Southern Christian Convention. They gave through this Department this year $400.00. Dr. Atkinson reports that they gave $1,500.00 to Home Missions of the Southern Christian Convention. Dr. Burnett in his report last year said that we have 1,360 churches in the denomination. There are then, not counting the churches that are in the Southern Christian Convention, 1,146 churches. Of these only 539, or 47%, made any contribution to Home Missions last year. These 539 churches gave through the church, Sunday-school, and the Christian Endeavor, $7,045.99, making an average of $13.09 per contributing church. Counting all the churches and the total amount received from churches for Home Missions there would be an average of $5.47 per church.

One of the most significant things about the study of the statistical reports, is that the conferences where there are hustling mission secretaries are the conferences where the largest percentage of the churches are giving to missions.

I trust that this report will get into the hands of the members of the 607 churches which took no offering for Home Missions last year, and that they will make an effort to help us to have a different report next year as to finances. We ought to have at least $20,000.00 for Home Missions this year.

THIRTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS THIS YEAR

BY M. T. MORRILL, Secretary for Foreign Missions

Again we are privileged to chronicle a year of progress and success in our foreign mission fields. The Garman family returned to Japan in March, and at once Mr. Garman took charge of the work he relinquished on account of his furlough. Miss Alice True is still at home on furlough. Hence we have eight missionaries in Japan.

Two things have greatly encouraged us in the work in that Empire, namely, the completion of two nice chapels, and the growth of the evangelistic spirit in the churches. By gifts coming through the Woman's Board for Foreign Missions we were able to purchase land and erect a chapel in memory of John R. Rowell, of Franklin, N. H. There is also a good pastor's residence on premises, and in several respects this is probably the most desirable church property we have in Japan. It is located in Wakuya, on the railroad west of Ishinomaki. The other chapel was supplied by the Silver Anniversary Fund of the Woman's Board for Foreign Missions, with which fund land was bought and a combined church and parsonage built in memory of Mrs. Achsah E. Weston, first president of the Woman's Board for Foreign Missions. Both chapels are in places where we have long done Christian work and will be signally helpful in those large needy towns.

The spirit of real evangelism (including revivalism) seems to be among our Japanese pastors and churches, and has prompted unusual effort to propagate Christianity among the people. The results have been such as to encourage continued effort in the same direction.

Good health for all our missionaries has been an added reason for abounding thanksgiving to God in behalf of the Mission and all the churches.

At this very moment we need another mission home for the Garman family to occupy. We also need a chapel for the Naka Shibuya Church, in Tokyo. There is money in sight for this chapel as soon as land can be purchased. A site can be bought for about $3,400 now, but the price increases every year. A few years ago we could have bought for about half the present price.

In Porto Rico we have two outstanding encouragements, the restored health of Rev. D. P. Barrett and the addition of Miss Olive G. Williams to the missionary force. Mr. Barrett is gradually resuming his work and superintendency of the field. This will mean progress. Miss Williams' enthusiastic devotion has quickened the pace of others. She has set up housekeeping for herself, and has set in motion the influence of a Christian home where such example is greatly needed. Classes and work in English have given her large opportunity already.

Our Ponce Church and Sunday-school have shown fine results and increase the past year.

The most pressing need is for an automobile. There is a fund with about $100.00 toward the purchase. We wish this fund might be completed at once, because it would so greatly facilitate the work. Our Santa Isabel building has reached such a stage of decay that it must be torn down and re-placed. Two or three thousand dollars must be put into a building here, for our lot faces the beautiful public square, and is close to the handsome Catholic cathedral.

A MESSAGE TO THE CHRISTIANS

BY HON. O. W. WHITELOCK

A little over a year ago The Christian Publishing Association took over the Drury job printing plant in which The Association had been half owner for some time. The Association fitted up the third flood of The Publishing House and occupied it with its job department, it also purchased three new typesetting machines (trading in the two old ones) and equipped its plant to do high class job printing. These changes and new equipment have cost the House a large sum of money, but we are now well equipped to do all the job printing that comes our way. We are now doing all our own printing upon our own presses and by our own plant. We are now enabled to do our own printing better than ever before, but we have capacity to do much outside work. Help your own Publishing House by getting your Conference minutes printed and your Conference supplies from it, also get your job printing done by it; you will get high class work at reasonable prices.

Remember to order all your Sunday-school supplies from our own Publishing House. You can get almost anything you may need in your Sunday-school work from the House. Do not order of Cook or any other House. You cannot build up OUR OWN unless you give loyal support to OUR OWN. Patronize your own, if you don't, nobody else will. If you do, somebody else will follow your lead. We must use our own Sunday-school literature, it is the best for our own schools. Take The Teachers and Officers Journal, edited by our own brother Hermon Eldredge; order one for each teacher and officer of your school. Organize your teachers and officers into a close-together working and praying band, take up the suggestions of The Journal and discuss them, put them into practice, and you will soon see the great worth of The Journal to your school. Every Sunday-school superintendent should get busy and try out the recommendation of The Journal. Mr. Eldredge is a great Sunday-school leader and our Sunday-schools should line up behind him and make our Sunday-schools as efficient as any schools in the country.

The Herald of Gospel Liberty should be in every home of the Christian Church. Every home needs it. Christians do not read enough religious literature, neither do they supply enough for their homes. Order The Herald at once and see if it does not help you to be a better Christian and give your home a better moral and religious atmosphere than it has ever had before.

The Christian Sun is a good paper and should be in every home of The Southern Christian Convention. The Christian Vanguard should be in every Christian home in Canada, but The Herald of Gospel Liberty should be in ALL Christian homes of Canada, of The Southern Convention, and all over the world. It is a messenger of good-will and Christian fellowship to all; let us all join in making it a power for good throughout all our Christian brotherhood.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH EXTENSION FUND

I believe that the Christian Church has scarcely begun to realize the importance of this fund to the Christian Church. It is a necessary auxiliary to the Home Mission Department. This department cannot successfully establish home mission churches in the cities and towns of our own country and Canada without the aid of such a fund. In fact, Home Missions can do but little toward permanently establishing our churches upon the western frontier unless such a fund is at hand to help in the work.

To illustrate: suppose Home Missions starts a church in some important city or town like it has done in the past at Lima and Columbus, Ohio, and Muncie, Indiana. The missionary in charge of the work is reasonably successful and gets a congregation together and a church is organized. What, then, is the first great need of the new church? It is A HOME. They may do fairly well for a little while in a rented hall or some old church building, but an organization cannot grow and prosper for a very long period in such a location. It must have a better home. The enthusiasm and sacrifice of the new church may be sufficient to purchase a suitable location and begin the erection of a building, but rarely, if ever, is the congregation able to erect and properly equip a building suitable to the needs of the congregation. If they do erect a building suitable to its needs they become so heavily burdened with a debt, that the church soon languishes, becomes disheartened, members fall away, and discouragement is written all over the faces of the congregation. This is the beginning of the end of the church and failure of the enterprise, with the result that another failure is heralded abroad to discomfort and dishearten our Church. The Home Mission Board is then blamed for inefficiency and bad judgment, when in fact the Church at large is to blame for not providing a fund to help the church until it is able to bear the burden of its debt. I know something of the history of the three churches I have named, and their experience is not far different from the supposed case: Whereas, if the Christian Church had had at its command a large extension fund, Lima and Columbus would have been "on their feet," so to speak, long before they were and could have done more in the Master's vineyard. If Muncie could have had the aid of a church extension fund it would not have become discouraged as it was a short time ago. The debt was so heavy they staggered under the load, and came very nearly falling completely, and would likely have fallen if the Indiana State Mission Board had not come to its rescue. The Indiana Mission Board was not financially able to assume the burden, but to save the church it assumed the debt and will appeal to the Indiana brethren to help it out. Brethren of the Christian Church, we should not by our indifference permit history to repeat itself, but it will unless we establish a permanent fund that can be used to help worthy church enterprises that need help to make them a success.

Those of us who have had experience with churches heavily burdened with debt know it is difficult to get new members, who have means, into them, for they reason that the church will expect them to help pay the debt, so they refuse to "get under the load," and many times a church that is debt burdened loses its best members because they get tired of paying on the debt and leave the church and thereby slip from under the burden and the church languishes and dies.

What is true as to our city churches is, as I have said, true as to our frontier churches, they need church homes as well as city folks, while they may not need as pretentious ones as their city brethren, yet they are usually in communities where money is scarce, so their needs are just as great as that of their city brethren.

We should have a large extension fund because we need it to make our Church prosper as a missionary Church. I am appealing to those in our Church who have money that they can spare, men who have plenty and no needy ones dependent upon them. We have men and women in almost every church that have no children or near relatives that they are under any obligation to leave their money to when they have no further use for it themselves. They could well afford to give their money to the Church rather than leave it to unthankful relatives. Better do it! Of course they had, for the money given to this fund will go on doing good after they have been a long time in their eternal home. Make your gift now, deed your property to The Christian Publishing Association subject to your life estate if you desire, but "do it now" and then your wishes will be carried out while you are alive. "Do it now" is a splendid motto and should govern more of our every-day good impulses. Any information will be gladly given. Write to me at Huntington, Indiana.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY

To All Sunday-school Workers, Greetings:—

The greatest need that confronts the Sunday-school workers of this progressive age is that of adequate vision. The ideals of a nation as well as the ideals of a Church determine its realization. All growth that we shall realize to-morrow in the Sunday-school world must be idealized to-day. Our Sunday-schools should dream dreams of greater achievements, but they should not spend their time in dreaming. The time has come when our people should not be satisfied with dreaming. We should not be content with our present undertakings. We should awake to greater things and measure up to the powers and potentialities of the latent energy that is pent up in the progressive spirit of the young people of the Church. In every other field the young people of this age are bringing things to pass, and if the same enthusiasm, the same intelligence, same business principles, and the same consecrated and sanctified common sense were devoted to the progress and growth of the Sunday-school of the Church, great changes would take place, great movements in organization, concentration of forces, dedication of means, application of talents, and utilization of service, for the promotion of the Kingdom through the Sunday-school would come to pass. Shall it be so? Shall we have the forces of the entire Church focalized upon the vital point in Church life, Christian efficiency, Christian training, and character building?

In order that our Sunday-school may measure up to their opportunities in their great field of usefulness, they must plan larger things. We must conserve our forces, cultivate the field, and save the opportunities that come to us in the Sunday-school work, and in order to do this, we must undertake to secure some better plan of organization so as to reach and supply the needs of the schools. But how shall we undertake greater work without greater means for the promotion of the work? We need to contribute $1,000.00 annually for the Sunday-school Department, and we are contributing only about one-third of this amount. We should put a man in the field to devote the larger part of his time to the Sunday-school work, but this cannot be done without support. The schools should plan to make a liberal offering next May for the purpose of realizing something on a larger and liberal plan for coming into closer and more vital touch with the individual school. If the schools will contribute sufficient funds for larger things and more efficient efforts and more practical plans, the Sunday-school Department and the Secretary will be able to co-operate with the other departments of the Convention in putting an efficient man in the field for his full time as Field Secretary of Religious Education to work for the Sunday-schools, the Christian Endeavors, and the education of our young people. This would be a long step forward in the Christian Church, a long step in advance of anything that we have done in the Sunday-school work.

It was decided at the annual meeting of the Sunday-school Board, held at the Seaside Chautauqua, last summer, to continue our co-operation with the International agencies, giving first consideration to the International Lesson Committee, which, for the first time in the history of the Christians, has upon it a representative of the Christian Church in the person of the Sunday-school Secretary, appointed by the Convention.

Dr. A. B. Kendall was requested to attend the coming conference of Teacher-Training representatives in Cincinnati, Ohio, and to keep in touch with the Teacher-Training Committee of the International work.

The Front-Line Standard, including the following thirteen points, was continued, and commended to our Sunday-schools as a worthy goal:—

1. School open all the year.
2. The Bible used in class session in all grades above the primary.
3. Graded Instruction.
4. An active Cradle Roll.

5. A working Home Department.
6. Sunday-school Council, meeting at least once a month.
7. A Teacher-Training Class, meeting weekly.
8. One or more Organized Classes.
9. Conversions and accessions to the church during the year.
10. A Statistical Report and Offering given annually to the Sunday-school Department of The American Christian Convention.
11. Mission Study and Offering to Home and Foreign Missions.
12. Special Temperance Instruction.
13. The school represented at some Sunday-school Convention, or School of Methods during the year.

It is urged that all schools endeavor to reach as many of these points of efficiency as possible, and strive for the full standard.

It is urged by the Sunday-school Board that all schools within the Convention use The Officers and Teachers Journal, which is admirably edited by Hermon Eldredge. This Journal is the best publication that our people can secure for the teachers and officers of the Sunday-school, and will be found exceedingly beneficial to advanced pupils, who wish to get the best methods of study and the best helps on the lessons.

Teacher-Training may be taken by corresponding with Dr. A. B. Kendall, Burlington, N. C., who is Secretary of this Department. He is also able to give valuable information concerning a suitable reading course for teachers. It would be well for all our teachers to watch The Officers and Teachers Journal for helpful suggestions concerning such matters from the pen of the Secretary.

Free Sunday-school literature can be secured by correspondence with Bro. Hermon Eldredge, care Y. M. C. A., Erie, Pa.

Let all the schools in The American Christian Convention endeavor to make a large contribution for the promotion of the general work of the Sunday-school Department, and the work will be enlarged to the advantage of the entire Church. The one great undertaking now before the mind of the Sunday-school Board in addition to the movements now on foot, is the employment of a Field Secretary for Religious Education to devote his entire time to the advancement of the religious life and progress of the various departments of the Church. The Church that looks after its young people is the Church of the future, and the Church that does not will soon die; hence the importance of this new movement.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL SUPPLIES

We publish Adult or Bible Class, Intermediate, and Junior quarterlies, uniform lesson series; a Teachers and Officers Journal; a four-page weekly paper; a combined weekly lesson and story paper for pupils under twelve years of age; charts and cards for Primary classes. All these are high-grade, edited and published by our own people. Samples cheerfully furnished.

The Graded Lessons are carried in stock and orders promptly filled. We can also furnish many additional supplies and items of equipment for Sunday-schools. Let us have your inquiries.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY

We have endeavored this year to make our work practical. Our objectives were adopted so as to assist in efficient local work and so also as to broaden us.

In order to satisfy the first objective we have special stress upon the Christian Endeavor Expert's Course. The response has not been what it should, but we are not discouraged. Many groups are now at work and will soon graduate many promising workers.

The following have been awarded the Expert's diploma and given the degree C. E. E.— CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR EXPERTS:

W. J. B. Truitt, Summerfield, N. C.; J. G. Truitt, Summerfield, N. C.; C. E. Zeninger, Elon College, N. C.; W. C. King, Seagrove, N. C.; J. C. Ammon, Seagrove, N. C.; J. V. Knight, Newport News, Va.; R. F. Brown, Wedowee, Ala.; R. P. Merritt, Chapel Hill, N. C.; Annie J. Rippy, Altamahaw, N. C.; Grace Trollinger, Greensboro, N. C., R. D. 5; Geo. D. THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MISSIONARY FUND

Our second objective was to endeavor to bring our societies up to the point of special missionary giving that would justify the Foreign Mission Board to send out an additional missionary in the name of our societies. This would require at least $600 per year. We have so far secured in cash and pledges toward this movement $446.80. The cash payments are as follows:

Society	Amount Paid
Blanchard, Ohio	$ 1.00
Eel River Christian Church	2.00

A FINAL EXHORTATION

Our hope is in our Conference and State Association Secretaries, our Corresponding Secretaries, and our Pastors. We must do our very best, and that is as good as anybody can do, to contribute our part to the achievement of the United Society's Millions—Thousands Campaign.

I call upon all our workers to work that the course of Christian Endeavor may bear its legitimate fruit in our Brotherhood. May I count on you, one and all?

EDUCATIONAL WORK FOR NINETEEN FIFTEEN

BY W. G. SARGENT, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

The record of the work of the Educational Department of the Convention for the year 1915 is one of encouragement, inasmuch as all of our schools show steady, if not remarkable, progress. Taking it all together it is doubtful if any phase of our work has a history of more inspiring development than that associated with our educational institutions, not only for the past year, but for several years. Strong men of clear vision and exalted faith have been raised up by God to places of leadership in matters affecting the educational interests of the denominational life, and their courage, undaunted by the seeming difficulties associated with progressive movements, has realized for the Church splendid achievements that must tell mightily in the future history of the denomination. Rather than that such leadership would seem to be on the decline it seems to be on the increase each year, not only in the developed strength of those who have already set their hands to the task, but in added numbers of those who are ready to devote their lives to the great work of Christian education, and who count no task too great to undertake, providing the objective is worthy. Practically all of our colleges are presided over by young men, men who are themselves in process of development and whose achievements in the immediate past promise large things for the future. To see the way in which some of them approach tasks that would appal most men and carry them through to successful issues is one of the most inspiring sights in our denominational life.

It is doubtful if the denomination realizes the significance of what has transpired during the last few years in our educational work. During a little over a quarter of a century colleges have been founded that are already ranking with the best of the denominational schools of the land. Buildings have been erected costing hundreds of thousands of dollars. Endowments have been increased to equally great amounts. Schools have been consolidated and greatly strengthened, and at least one has been founded on the frontier with measureless possibilities of good. Our colored college, which has maintained the even tenor of its way for years, has risen with a new building second to none in the South, and with splendid promise for the future.

It is due to these facts, more than to any other in the history of our denominational life for the past twenty-five years that a real substantial, clear thinking, large visioned, faith provoking leadership is being provided for the work that is radiant with promise. And each year but adds to the achievements of these splendid leaders and their faithful assistants.

The last reports accessible to the department indicate there were in attendance in all our schools during the year fourteen hundred and forty-four students in all departments. Between five and six hundred of these were proceeding to degrees in arts. The remainder were devoting their time and attention to special courses of which all our schools offer considerable choice, the number being determined largely by local needs and conditions. It is to be remarked in passing that all our schools are yearly increasing the range of their studies, conforming to the demands of our time and so allowing a wider latitude to all intending students.

Of the total number of students, as reported, one hundred and eighteen were preparing for definite Christian service, largely intending to enter the ministry. Eighty-four are reported as in the normal department. Doubtless that number will be considerably increased as these young men and women go forth to seek places of service. Five hundred and sixty-six are reported as coming from Christian (denominational) homes.

The number of instructors employed is ninety-seven. Of these a few are employed only part time. Fifty-eight thousand, one hundred and fifty-four dollars were paid these instructors last year for their services. These figures indicate the sacrificial nature of the service rendered by this splendid corps of workers. Additional current expense amounted to $48,992.35.

The total value of our educational buildings and equipment is reported to be $899,391.42. Total endowment of all schools is $651,644.81. Little change was made in the endowments last year, only $1,460.34 being added.

The amount of indebtedness on all plants is $95,979.88. A part of this is provided for by subscription. Some mention may be made of our colleges specifically, as to forward moves during the year.

At the Christian Biblical Institute twenty-five students were enrolled for the year. Other students of Defiance attended for special lectures. The Dean reports a "deeper and more general interest in the study of the Bible than in any previous year since the college and The Christian Biblical Institute were affiliated." It is significant that the school is seeking to so adjust its courses of study as to equip parish assistants and directors of religious work for service. A plan has been inaugurated by which the endeavor will be made to secure the co-operation of a number of individuals who will loan $50.00 a year for four years to deserving students. This plan promises large things for the future of the work as it affects ministerial students. Provision will be made for every unmarried student who desires to take up ministerial work, to earn his way through college. During the year the students in attendance have done considerable field work, twelve of them preaching full time. Others have devoted time and strength to special meetings receiving into the church one hundred and sixty-five persons, and raising nearly $7,000 for current expenses. No faculty changes have been made during the year or are at present contemplated.

Defiance College reports the largest enrollment in its history, the total enrollment for the year being 660. An increase of over 50% over that of any previous year was attained in the Freshman Class. This college reports an attendance of 150 in the Department of Education. During the year much time was spent in adjusting the courses so as to conform to the new State laws for teachers in training, the new courses which have been prepared meeting the requirements of the State Department of Education. At least three combination courses have been arranged with the State University, viz.: in Arts-agriculture, Arts-law, and Arts-medicine. Several new members have been added to the faculty which will materially strengthen the already strong teaching force of the college. Considerable additions have been made to the library which now reports a total number of catalogued books of 6,495. Of the immediate needs of Defiance mention may be made of an increase in the endowment of $100,000 and a new science hall. Plans are being made for the accomplishment of both these necessities.

Elon College, North Carolina, steadily grows stronger and is rapidly winning a firm place in the ranks of the best of the colleges in the southland. The attendance last year attained the point where it was felt by the trustees, with the equipment provided, a halt must be called and this year attendance has been limited to 400. This is indeed a courageous step for any college to take, and shows that those responsible for the conduct of the affairs of this splendid school are more concerned with the character of the work done than with increased attendance—an aim so many of our colleges fall victim to. The faculty there is steadily being strengthened, and the work being done is telling in results in the entire Church of the South. With its large student body the president recently makes report that there are probably not more than twelve students in the college who are not Christians. Recent special services held under the direction of Rev. George Eastes, of Norfolk, Va., have aided materially in bringing about this most happy result.

Among other changes proposed is a complete reconstruction of the grounds by an expert landscape gardener. This will add much to the already very attractive campus by which Elon is surrounded.

Jireh College, our frontier educational project, is winning for itself an increased place in the thought and life of the State. This is being done by wider advertising and personal visitation on the part of the president and members of the Board of Trustees. The authorities have felt for some time the need of increased facilities, especially for dormitory purposes, and about the mid-year preparations were made for the erection of a new building for girls. It contains fourteen rooms, besides basement, is furnace heated, and will, for the present, at least, meet the imperative need of the school. The president reports the student body growing and that they are developing an esprit de corps which will help the institution greatly through the increased interest of its alumni. The special fund of $12,000 is nearing completion and will aid the work much. Two new members have been added to the faculty.

Palmer College, Missouri, has already justified the clear-sightedness of its president and Board of Trustees in removal to Albany, inasmuch as it has outgrown the really splendid building provided by the enterprising citizens of that place. Through the efforts of President Watkins and a committee of citizens, a new dormitory is in course of erection which it is expected will be completed by Convocation of next year. The building will cost about $30,000, will be 40 x 120, with a gymnasium in the rear, 40 x 70 feet. Of the amount required for the completion of the building, $16,000 was donated by the citizens of Albany and the remainder, an equal, if not larger amount, was secured from members of the Christian Church in the territory included in the Western Convention. The attendance this year represents an increase of over 25% over that of any previous year. With the added facilities acquired through the new building we may reasonably expect a very large increase next year. Palmer College is coming to its own and with added years the work in the West will begin to feel the impetus of the school.

Starkey Seminary, Lakemont, continues to provide excellent educational advantages for students in the near east. There have been several changes in the faculty which, no doubt, is made stronger thereby. During the year Dr. Summerbell has taken time from his work to give courses of lectures at Defiance and Elon and at Virginia Beach. By his intervisitation in our schools, Dr. Summerbell is doing much to bring our schools in closer contact with each other and is helping to co-ordinate our denominational education endeavor.

Toronto Bible and English Institute continues its work for our student body at Toronto in providing them with home advantages at the lowest possible rates, as well as seeking to conserve our denominational interests in Ontario. Kirton Hall has been improved and is this year under the direction of the wife of the late Rev. W. H. Chidley, one of our strongest Ontario pastors. It will no doubt be well taken care of by her. Prof. Dales directs, with the Educational Board of the Conference, the work there.

Union Christian College, at the commencement season, at the close of the spring term, accepted the resignation of Dr. D. A. Long, who had served the school for several years as president, and called to the office Rev. C. B. Hershey, M. A., D. D., of Farmer City, Ill. Dr. Hershey is a young man and brings to his high office qualifications of such nature that it is felt he will serve largely in placing Union in a position where it will be able to render service of the highest value to the church. Under his guidance several courses have been added to the curriculum and the teaching staff enlarged and strengthened. The building has been improved in the interior and yet other changes are contemplated that will add to its attractiveness and efficiency.

Under the direction of the New England Christian Convention a movement has definitely been set in motion to provide educational advantages for our young men of the East within the limits of the New England Convention. A Commission, appointed a year ago, acting under instruction of the Convention, canvassed the field and decided to recommend to the Convention Bangor as a possibility. Approaches were made to the authorities of Bangor Seminary and at the Convention at Haverhill, in June, President Beach of the Seminary was present and spoke. The Convention decided, if suitable arrangements could be made, to affiliate with Bangor, and negotiations are at present under way to this end. It is too early to state with any degree of definiteness the likelihood of success in this movement, but it is hoped it may come to fruition.

No mention is made of Franklinton in this report as the school is under the entire direction of the Board of Control, which will speak for itself in this issue of THE ANNUAL.

Each year the Conferences are taking a greater interest in the work of the Educational Department and are seeking in larger numbers to co-operate with the Educational Board in the work it is seeking to do. This year, as in past years, every conference has been addressed in the interests of the work and more than half of them have appointed educational representatives in the person of an Educational Secretary who works with the Educational Board in a proper presentation of our educational interests.

The Board has sought to enlist the young men of the Church in the work of the gospel ministry by observing Educational Week during the month of February and keeping in touch with those young men from the different sections of our work who have seemed to be likely candidates for the ministry. Some of these young men have responded and have already begun their training, or will begin in the near future to fit themselves for the work. The letters that have come to the Secretary during the year with reference to their decision have been one of the most encouraging features of the work. We believe Educational Week has come to stay and will, if utilized by the ministry to the extent of its possibility, be more and more effectual in this, the very greatest problem of the future, the providing of leadership adequately equipped for the pulpit and pew.

Not as much literature has been published this year as in other years throughout the last quadrennium. Some leaflets bearing upon the work have been prepared and printed, notably "Our Educational Institutions," which gives in very brief but comprehensive form salient facts about our colleges; and "The Call of the Ministry," by President Harper, for distribution among young men. Two special numbers of The Herald of Gospel Liberty have been issued, the editor giving us ready and willing assistance. The Educational Column of The Herald has probably had the greatest amount of educational news of a vital and inspiring nature in the history of the paper. In this practically all of the colleges have generously participated. The Herald columns still remain the readiest point of contact with the Church and we welcome this effort on the part of our schools to place illuminating information before the people of what is being accomplished.

Reports, full and complete, have been furnished by the schools and colleges and it has been correspondingly possible to furnish exact data as to the work. Indeed our institutions are to be commended for their readiness to assist in this way, as the reports required are most comprehensive and require a great deal of detailed information.

The Secretary has been unable to attend the Annual Meeting of the Council of Church Boards as no provision has been made for traveling expenses. This we believe to be a distinct loss to the Church. We have, however, kept in touch with the Council by correspondence and distributed one hundred copies of the Report of the Meeting to leaders of the denomination.

The Church was represented at the Meeting of the Association of American Colleges held at Chicago during the week of January 11-16 by Prof. Lawrence of Elon, President Watkins of Palmer, and Prof. Caris of Defiance. This organization, newly formed, is intended to include all denominational and independent colleges in the country worthy the name "college." The organization will probably have an important bearing on the colleges of the country, including those of our own Church.

It is possible in presenting the financial results of the year's work to give only the amount of money passing through the hands of the Board for the twelve months. It must not be overlooked that this represents but a small portion of the amount given by the denomination to education for the year. At least four of our colleges have Special College Days when the entire constituency of the institution is canvassed. To this must be added the personal gifts for new buildings, endowments, etc.

The amount of contribution through the Board from October 1, 1914, to October 1, 1915, is $1,908.70. Of this amount $176.37 is special for Franklinton. This amount was given in response to the Annual Educational Call and to Reminders which, in many cases, were sent out later to those churches that delayed the offering.

We cannot close the account of the work of the year without mention of the assistance rendered by Dr. Burnett, Secretary of the Convention. He has willingly acceded to the suggestions of the Secretary and done much to contribute to the success of the year's record.

FRANKLINTON CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

BY REV. JOHN BLOOD, PRESIDENT BOARD OF CONTROL

It is a source of much pleasure to report that the New Building is finished, and that the school opened this year October 6th, and will continue until May. The steam heat plant and the electric light plant are both giving satisfactory service, and the opera chairs in the chapel are much appreciated. The same staff of teachers that were there last year are there this year. We have added to the teaching force Rev. J. E. Samuel, B. D., who is to take charge of the newly started Theological Class, and we are glad to make this announcement, for this is one of the most important steps we have taken for some time. The negro preachers are now invited to come to Franklinton, and be helped to a better preparation for the all important work of preaching the blessed gospel of the Son of God. I am glad to say that we have paid or have the money to pay, for all the work that has been done without borrowing any more money. All the money we owe is eight thousand, four hundred dollars. I wish we might devise some plan by which this indebtedness could be paid off. $4,400 of this money is due the Trust Co., in Philadelphia, Pa., for which we are paying 5% interest and the interest paid every two months. This money we have the privilege of paying in any amounts at any time and thus reducing the interest. I do hope it will be possible for us to pay the whole of this soon and thus cut out about $425 for yearly interest. How shall we do it? Who will suggest a plan and help to work it? No plan will work itself. We have great reason to be thankful for all that has been done, and I do in this manner return sincere thanks to all the dear friends who have helped so much, and to God, who has been so mindful of us and hath brought us to see what our eyes now see, that beautiful building standing like a monument to us as a people, and an honor to God, and the hope of good for the race of people for which it was brought into being.

OBJECT OF THE INSTITUTE

The chief objects are (a) To help in the all important work of training religious leaders among the people; (b) To seek out apt young people in whom is the spirit of leadership and who can be trained for real Christian and missionary service among their people by means of systematic biblical and theological studies.

The young people of our day are raising many questions concerning the faith of their fathers.

Those questions can be helpfully and truthfully answered only by the earnest student of the Bible.

STATUS OF INSTITUTE

This Institute is open to students of every Christian denomination. A purely Christian catholicity is maintained.

A special feature in the Institute will be the lectures on important theological subjects by resident and non-resident lecturers.

Education is a life-long, worthy, and blessed companion; misfortune cannot suppress it; crime cannot destroy it; an enemy cannot alienate it; thieves cannot steal it; gold cannot buy it; despotism cannot enslave it; and death has no power over it.

At home it is man's good friend, abroad his introduction and guarantee; in solitude a companion, in society an adornment, it gives to life a grace and effectiveness that comes from no other source.

Without education man is enslaved, embarrassed, and limited; he must hesitate in conversation, keep silence in company, accept the statements of others, rely upon sources of information he cannot test, and while living in a world full of wonderful things, he must die without knowing what they were or why they existed. Coalton said that "the foal of a racer neither finds out his speed nor calls out his powers if pastured with the common herd that are doomed for the collar or the yoke."

STANDARDS OF EFFICIENCY IN SERVICE

BY REV. EL-CHARLES ARTHUR DEVORE, D. D.

Lest we forget, lest we live too low in the valley, or work too little, we need to have recognized standards or ideals for service.

THE FRONT-LINE CHURCH

Has every family represented regularly at its Sunday-school, prayer, and preaching services.

Has a prayer altar in every family.

Has The Herald of Gospel Liberty in every house.

Has an evergreen Sunday-school and an all-the-year prayer-meeting.

Has a Woman's Missionary Society, and a Young People's Study Circle.

Takes all the collections called for by its Conference and The American Christian Convention.

Is a living example of the principles which we profess.

Preserves the unity of the spirit and the bonds of peace.

"Set ye up an ensign upon the bare mountain, lift up the voice unto them, wave the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles."—Isaiah 13: 2.

THE FRONT-LINE CHURCH-MEMBER

Prays daily in faith believing.

Studies his Bible regularly and systematically.

Attends the Sunday-school, prayer, and preaching services.

Bears a Christian's end of Christ's yoke.

Helps to pay his pastor; and bears his share of all other burdens of the church.

Works zealously for the cause of missions, Christian education, prohibition, and social reform.

Fellowships all other Christians; boosts all other workers.

Keeps his windows open to the sunshine.

Grows daily in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord.

Does his best always and everywhere.

"And his banner over me was love."—Canticles 2: 4.

THE FRONT-LINE PREACHER

Works always at his own trade; seeks to be an approved witness.

Preaches often in behalf of missions, education, and prohibition.

Works regularly in Sunday-school and Y. P. S. C. E.

Subscribes for The Herald of Gospel Liberty, or other church paper, and gets his members to do the same.

Attends local, county, and state union and federation meetings (in behalf of missions, prohibition, education, and Bible study), ministerial associations, and especially the institutes of his own conference.

Studies carefully before every sermon and Bible lesson; and in addition to direct sermon preparation, reads not less than 1,000 pages annually of the best kinds of literature in order to increase his own general knowledge.

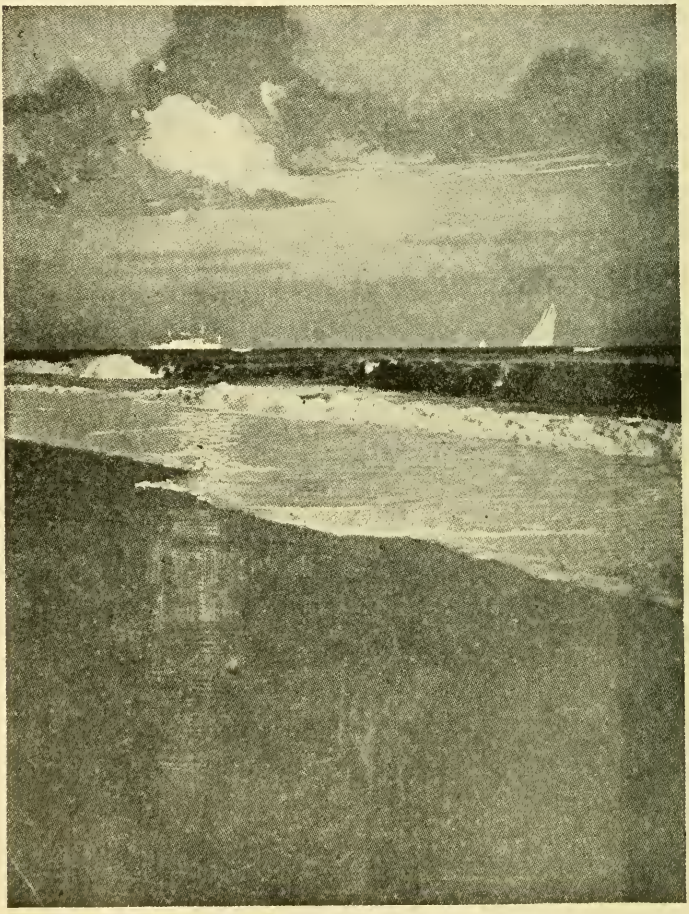
Prays daily for growth and victory for our organizations and principles.

Believes that Christ ought to win this world and to destroy all its sin and darkness; therefore his zeal never fails in his efforts in behalf of the cause.

Takes all the collections called for by his conference and The American Christian Convention.

Keeps up with the procession.

"Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee,
That it may be displayed because of the truth."—Psalm 60: 4.



"Old Ocean" at Virginia Beach, Virginia

SEASIDE CHAUTAUQUA

AND SCHOOL OF METHODS OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Virginia Beach, Virginia, July 17-23, 1916

BY REV. WARREN H. DENISON, D. D.

The third annual session of the Seaside Chautauqua and School of Methods of the Christian Church will be held at the delightful spot where the past two sessions have been held on Old Ocean, at Virginia Beach, near Norfolk, Va., July 17-23, 1916.

It is conducted by a General Executive Committee of one hundred representative persons from all sections of the Christian Church brotherhood. This committee has its annual meeting at the time of the Chautauqua and outlines the work, elects the officers, and designates a smaller committee in the vicinity of Norfolk as Central Executive Committee. This committee plans the program, works out the details, and advertises the Chautauqua.

W. H. DENISON
President

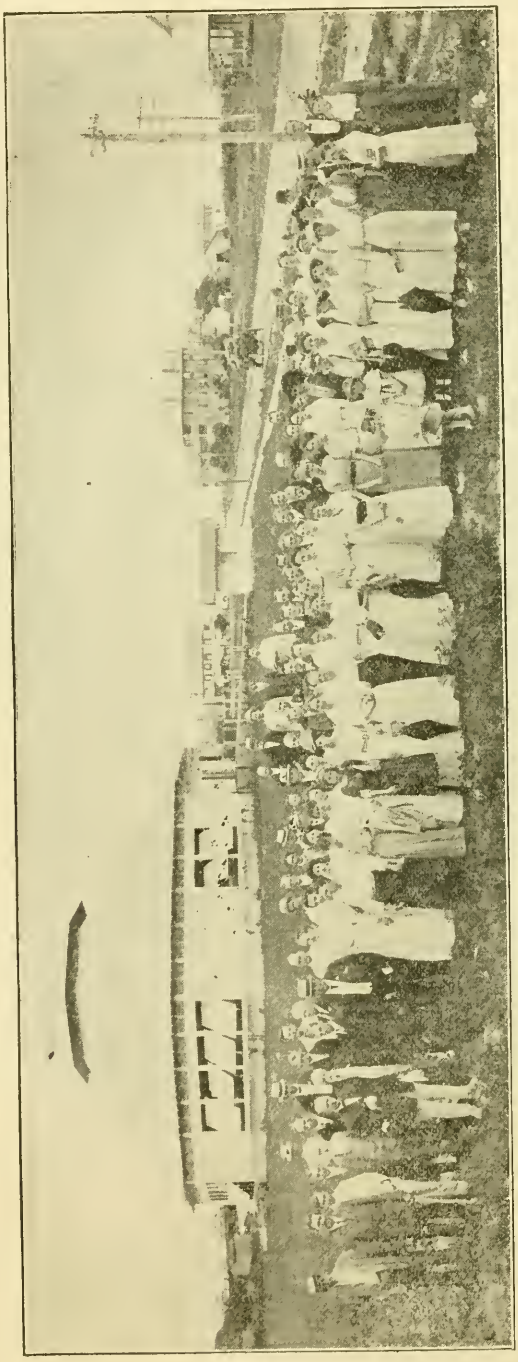
GEO. D. EASTES
Gen. Secretary

The officers are: Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D., President, Norfolk, Va.; Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Vice-President, Erie, Pa.; Rev. W. G. Sargent, D. D., Vice-President, Providence, R. I.; Pres. W. A. Harper, Vice-President, Elon College, N. C.; Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., Recording Secretary, Suffolk, Va.; Rev. George D. Eastes, General Secretary, Norfolk, Va.; Rev. H. E. Rountree, Assistant General Secretary, Portsmouth, Va.; Dr. J. W. Manning, Treasurer, Norfolk, Va.

The Central Executive Committee is composed of the President, three Secretaries, Treasurer, Rev. C. H. Rowland, D. D., Franklin, Va.; Mr. W. J. Lee, Bennetts Creek, Va.; Mr. I. A. Luke, Holland, Va.; and Mr. R. B. Odom, Bennetts Creek, Va.

The large auditorium in which the meetings are held is most delightful and appropriate for such gatherings. The cool ocean breezes make it most enjoyable. We rent it from the Baptists. Two sessions are held at the same time, one in the auditorium and the other in the church near by. The Chautauqua combines a vacation, summer conference, school of methods, sermons, lectures, entertainments. The programs have been very strong and they will not be weakened. A number of courses for the five days are conducted by our strongest men.

Those who gave lectures and addresses and sermons during the 1914 session were: Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Dr. W. W. Staley, Mrs. F. E. Bullock, Miss Elizabeth Harris, Dr. M. T. Morrill, Pres. W. A. Harper, Dr. W. C. Wicker, Prof. S. M. Smith, Dr. A. B. Kendall, Dr. A. W. Lightbourne, Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Dr. J. F. Burnett, Dr. Martyn Summerbell, Dr. George R. Stuart, Dr. W. H. Denison, Rev. Gypsy Smith, Jr., Dr. B. W. Spillman, Mrs. C. H.



Virginia Beach Tabernacle and Some of the 1915 Attendants

Rowland, and Mrs. W. H. Denison. A number of others conducted chapel exercises and vesper services by the ocean side at the setting of the sun.

The following were the faculty and lecturers for 1915: Dr. John MacCalman, Dr. O. W. Powers, Pres. W. A. Harper, Miss Elizabeth Harris, Dr. W. G. Sargent, Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Mrs. C. H. Rowland, Mrs. W. H. Denison, Dr. W. C. Wicker, Rev. H. G. Rowe, Dr. A. B. Kendall, Mrs. F. E. Bullock, Dr. F. G. Coffin, Dr. Martyn Summerbell, Dr. O. B. Whitaker, Rev. Victor Lightbourne, Patterson Jubilee Singers. Several others conducted vesper services.

It is the aim to have some of the former speakers each year and some new ones. The subjects treated have been: Bible, Sunday-school, Missions, Christian Endeavor, Church and Pastoral Methods, Sermons, Minister, Evangelism, Church Efficiency and Christian Leadership, Religious and Educational Lectures, Model Sunday-school, The Girl, and various conferences and round tables.

In 1914 the Eastern Virginia Conference Sunday-school Convention held its session at the Chautauqua; in 1915 the Sunday-school Board of The American Christian Convention and the Young People's General Convention of the Southern Christian Convention held their sessions in connection with the Chautauqua. The fine exhibits of Sunday-school work, the book tables, the bathing, rest, fine Christian fellowship, side trips and outings, the many places of interest around Norfolk, all made it a most valuable school and privilege.

Diplomas are given by the faculty showing the work done. One dollar admits to the entire week's program. Accommodations are very reasonable. A large and representative attendance is expected at the 1916 session. Correspondence is solicited with the above-named officers.

THE EARLY CHRISTIANS IN DAYTON, OHIO

Luther Bruen was born in New Jersey, in 1783, and came to Dayton, Ohio, in 1804. He was an influential and useful citizen, and noted for benevolence as well as for business talent. He had a number of descendants—Frank, Robert, and Mary Bruen, Mrs. Sella Wright, David B. Quincy, and Thomas Corwin, Mrs. Susie Zeller, Mrs. Dr. Pauley, Mrs. Charles D. Mead, Miss Mary and Miss Martha and William Brady.

Mr. Bruen was a practical abolitionist in times when to advocate antislavery required both moral and physical courage and enlightened views.

In 1839 Luther Bruen was able to form an antislavery society, of which he was elected president. On South Main Street, west side, between Fourth and Fifth Streets, a church known as the Union or Newlight Church, which was largely built with money subscribed by Mr. Bruen, was erected. Here lectures by famous antislavery leaders were frequently delivered. The meetings were frequently interrupted and the speakers treated with violence and indignity by angry pro-slavery crowds. In 1836, Dr. Birney and Rev. Mr. Rankin, who were invited to address an audience at the Union Church, barely escaped with their lives, and were hidden away for some hours, one at the resident of Dr. H. Jewett, a leading physician and active abolitionist, and the other at the home of his relative, Dr. John Steele, who though not an abolitionist, believed in justice and free speech. The mob destroyed or injured the houses of abolitionists and negroes, and tore to pieces the Bible, and broke the windows and stove at the church.

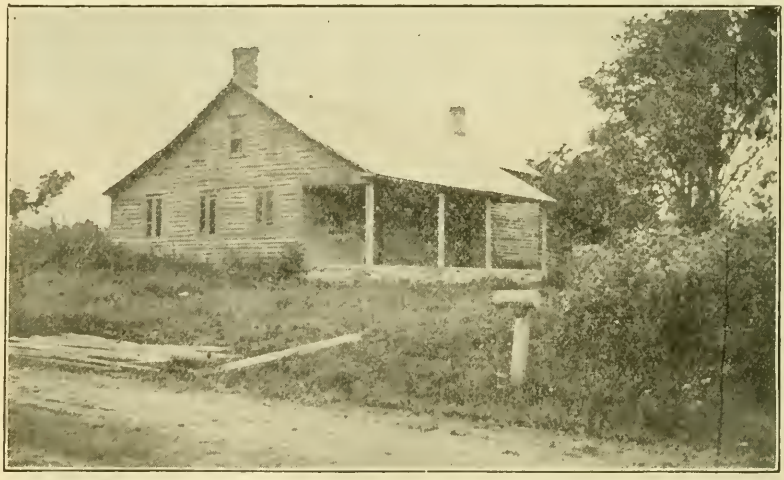
The location of that first Christian Church of Dayton is about where the Reibold Building now stands.

Substantially the above facts came from Deacon Moses Baker (deceased 1882), who served the Enon Church as such for forty-two years as successor to his father, who served the same church in the same capacity thirty-three years, and the book, "Early Days of Dayton." Deacon Baker also tells of a colored woman dressed in black silk, who had been educated in the family of a Presbyterian minister and who was a fine speaker, and a ladylike woman. She came to Dayton as a pioneer in the Agitation for the Freedom for slaves, but not a church or public hall could be secured for her. Mr. Bruen opened for her the Christian Church, and during her address a mob of citizens broke in the door and smashed the windows. Their violence converted Mr. Bruen and others of the church to open defense on Biblical ground.

AN EARLY HOME OF THE CHRISTIAN PALLADIUM

Palladium—an image of Pallas, especially the one at Troy, upon which the safety of the city depended. The word means a safeguard, a protector, and especially a protecting institution. Very early in the year 1832 the Christians established a protecting institution and called it The Christian Palladium.

Rev. Joseph Badger was chosen editor, and the first issue appeared May 1, of that year (1832). The first two years of its existence it was published at



This was "The Palladium" Printery

West Mendon, New York, and then for a time at Union Mills. During the summer of 1815, Rev. John Bowdish Gove visited Union Mills and secured the above picture of the house in which the editorials were written, the type set, the proof read, the printing done, and indeed every other thing connected with the paper. The house at one time had wings on either side, which were removed many years ago.

MR. AND MRS RAFAEL HERNANDEZ were but recently married, and it is in order for our brotherhood to wish them well, since they are worthy and faithful colaborers. For many years his name has been familiar to us, and a few words about him will be in place.

As a boy he thought to be a Catholic priest, and, with that in view, entered a priest's home to study and fit himself. Having much native rectitude of character and sense of right and wrong (probably inherited from his mother), he revolted at what he saw and learned, and finally quit the priestly home. Not long afterward he became interested in the gospel as presented by Protestant missionaries and was converted. Almost from the day of his conversion he was inclined toward the gospel ministry. Coming in contact with our workers and learning of our Church, he offered himself, was accepted, and almost immediately placed in charge of outpost work. Now he is pastor of our chief church, located in Ponce.

Mr. Hernandez is naturally studious, has a keen mind and retentive memory, and by patient effort has schooled himself to the point of efficiency. His ability and worth are recognized among Christians all over Porto Rico, so that he is a welcome speaker at conventions. As a preacher, he is careful, Biblical, interesting, and logical. Since his great sorrow and illness of a few years ago, that brought him to the gate of death, his work has exhibited new unction. For years he modestly refused ordination, but on the evening of the day the new church in Ponce was dedicated (Feb. 23, 1913), was formally set apart for the gospel ministry. Being still a young man who has not reached his prime, we may hope for him many years of effective service in behalf of the kingdom and his fellow men.

AN ILLUSTRIOUS FATHER AND REMARKABLE SONS

We take more than ordinary delight in presenting to the readers of this ANNUAL the face of Rev. C. H. Hainer, and his ministerial family. The history of this man cannot be written, nor yet can it be told. His contribution to the kingdom of God is beyond computation. More than a half-century of faithful, efficient service in the pulpit, plus the gift of six sons and two grandsons to the same great work of leading men to Jesus Christ.

His life-story is well told, so far as language can tell it, in the memoir written by his son, Rev. W. H. Hainer. The one fact to which the reader's attention is particularly called in this item is the fact that his sons were all made ministers in the Christian Church, and ordained by Christian ministers. Rev. C. D. Hainer was pastor of the Christian church at Portsmouth, N. H., at the time of his death, twenty-eight years ago. Rev. E. A. Hainer was pastor of the Christian church in Brooklyn, New York (Green Point), for nine years, and from there went to Haverhill, Massachusetts, from which pastorate he went to the Union Baptist church in Providence, Rhode Island, which church he served until his death. Rev. L. W. Hainer is pastor of the Calvary Baptist church in Morristown, Pennsylvania.

Rev. W. H. Hainer, next in age, is pastor of the Christian church at Irvington, New Jersey, and has been for about thirty years. His long, unbroken, and successful pastorate bespeaks his ability and faithfulness. Rev. Fred L. Hainer is pastor of the East Providence Baptist church. Rev. H. M. Hainer is the successful and energetic pastor of the Christian church at Haverhill, Massachusetts, the one formerly served by his brother, E. A. Hainer.

One of his grandsons, Rev. L. M. Hainer, is pastor of the Westminster Baptist church in Philadelphia, and another, Rev. A. M. Hainer, is pastor at Stouffville, Ontario. Such another record is not likely to be found in the history of men.

REV. CHARLES HENRY HAINER

(Stouffville, Ontario)

Sixty-four years in the Christian ministry is a record not often equaled, but this is the happy distinction of the subject of this sketch. He was born in Northfield, Ont., June 2, 1834, being the seventh child in a family of ten, five boys and five girls. He was the son of John Hainer and Nancy Bowman Hainer, who were pioneers in that section of Canada. His father was a soldier in the War of 1812, and stood beside General Brock when he fell at Queenstown Heights. He was also one of the little company of eighteen volunteers who crossed the river with muffled oars and burned Buffalo. Of this large family of ten children only the youngest, John Wesley, now remains.

Mr. Hainer was converted at the age of sixteen by reading the Bible. An old stump in the meadow of his father's farm was for years to him a sacred shrine, for it was here he knelt alone one dark night, after hearing the Spirit say, "Now or never," and surrendered his life to God. From the first he felt a strong impulse to enter the ministry, but this was counter to the current of his whole ambition, and for some time he resisted the Spirit. His first public confession was in a prayer-meeting conducted by Elder Earl, by whom he was soon afterwards baptized in Big Creek, which flows into Lake

The Anthony Wayne Library
The Defiance College

Erie. He began preaching at the age of seventeen, and at eighteen was ordained in his home church at Northfield, Elder Rolf, of Orono, Ont., preaching the sermon. On December 13, 1853, he was married to Miss Jane McCormick, of Burford, Ont. He built a house on the twenty acre farm his father gave him, and preached for six years in a schoolhouse without a salary, supporting his small family from the farm. But God was not only calling him into the ministry but away from the farm. Cattle from the neighboring woods broke into the field and destroyed all the seed corn which was ready for sowing. He purchased more and placed in the field, when one of the horses with which he was ploughing dropped dead. He returned to the house, wept with his wife over their loss, and resolved to quit the farm and devote his life wholly to the gospel ministry. He took charge of the church at Drayton, Ont. His salary was so small, and there was so much sickness in the family, that poverty and suffering became very sore. Flour was ten dollars a barrel, and out of his pittance the largest purchase he could make at a time was a four quart pailful, for which he trudged a distance of three miles. But these days were to him the "fourth watch of the night," in tempest tossing and testing. The fires of affliction consumed the dross of fear and distrust, until the Refiner beheld His face reflected in the pure gold of his character.

Evangelism was ever the dominant note in his preaching, and to comparatively few men has been given so rich a harvest of souls. Not only was he his own evangelist, but he was much sought after by pastors of other churches. So marked were his gifts in this line that for a time he was engaged as the Conference Evangelist.

He has held the pastorate of nearly every church in the Canadian Conference, his longest pastorates being in Newmarket and Oshawa, our largest Canadian churches. Soon after beginning his first pastorate in Newmarket, the greatest sorrow of his life came to him in the loss of his faithful wife, who died May 29, 1870. Like a flock of sheep without a shepherd, the children were now scattered, kind friends receiving them into their homes. The old home was never again united.

On June 20, 1871, Mr. Hainer married Miss Grace Terry, of Hartman, Ont., some of the smaller children returning to the newly-established home.

The fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Hainer's ordained ministry was celebrated in a family reunion at Morton Park, on the shore of Lake Simcoe, in August, 1902. Appropriate services were held on Sunday, August 3, exactly fifty years to a day from his ordination, August 3, 1852. Each of the sons participated in the service, the father preaching the sermon from Romans 1: 16. Letters of greeting and congratulation were read from all the churches of which he had been pastor, and also from the churches of which the sons were pastors at the time.

Mr. Hainer continued in the active ministry practically until the day of his death. His last sermon was preached in Bloomington, on Sunday, July 11, 1915, his subject being, "The Cities of Refuge." After a painful illness with an affection of the heart for three weeks, he was called home on Tuesday, August 17, 1915. His wife, two sons, and the daughter were with him in the last moments.

The funeral services were held in the Memorial Christian Church of Stouffville, where he had been pastor for many years, one of his grandsons being now in charge. A beautiful tribute was paid the dead clergyman by Rev. Dr. Booth of the local Methodist Episcopal Church, and by Revs. Charles Falkler, Daniel Prosser, Van VanNorman, and John Dales, Christian ministers. The burial was in the family plot in Newmarket on the following day, brief services being held in the Christian Church in that place prior to the burial. Five sons and one grandson acted as pall-bearers. The widow, six sons, and a daughter survive.

Probably the greatest tribute to the influence of this remarkable minister is in the fact that eight sons and two grandsons followed in his footsteps and became preachers of the gospel. Two of these, Charles D., in 1887, and Edwin A., in 1905, preceded the father into the heavenly rest.

His was a life of devotion to his family, his ministry, and his Lord. Many invitations to important churches in the United States were extended to him, but he preferred to devote his life to the churches of the home land. Thousands of sermons, conversions, baptisms, funerals, and marriages, and hundreds of thousands of miles traveled, are a brief summary of the life of this hero of the cross of nearly fourscore and two years. A servant of God, a mighty preacher, quiet, unostentatious, spiritual, rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

J. H. Van Atta, Binghamton, N. Y.—Sunday-school.
Rev. Alex. MacKenzie, West Henrietta, N. Y.—Christian Endeavor.

This Association meets annually on the third Monday in June at Lakemont, N. Y. The objects are to promote the union and advancement of all our church interests within its bounds, which comprise the territory covered by the Christian conferences lying wholly or in part in the State of New York, and by cooperating with other similar associations to promote the union and advancement of the entire body.

Through its six departments—Missionary, Relief, Educational, Publishing, Sunday-school, and Christian Endeavor—much permanent good has been accomplished.

In connection with the New York State Christian Association a new corporation has been effected, known as the New York State Christian Convention, embracing the same territory. The Convention meets at the same time as the Association and has the same officers.

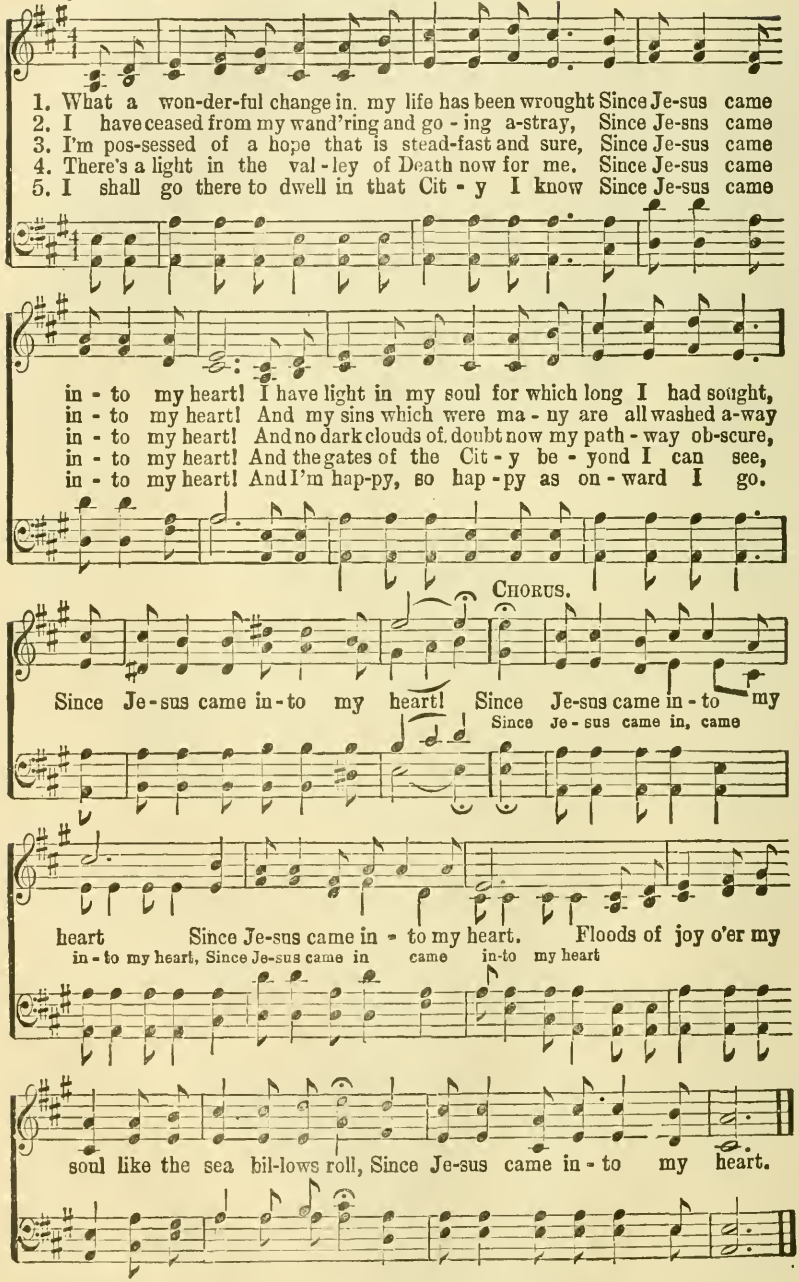
No. 3 Since Jesus Came Into My Heart.

R. H. McDaniel. COPYRIGHT, 1914, BY CHAS. H. GABRIEL. Chas. H. Gabriel.



1. What a won-der-ful change in my life has been wrought Since Je-sus came
2. I have ceased from my wand'ring and go - ing a-stray, Since Je-sus came
3. I'm pos-sessed of a hope that is stead-fast and sure, Since Je-sus came
4. There's a light in the val - ley of Death now for me. Since Je-sus came
5. I shall go there to dwell in that Cit - y I know Since Je-sus came in - to my heart! I have light in my soul for which long I had sought, in - to my heart! And my sins which were ma - ny are all washed a-way in - to my heart! And no dark clouds of doubt now my path - way ob-scure, in - to my heart! And the gates of the Cit - y be - yond I can see, in - to my heart! And I'm hap-py, so hap - py as on - ward I go.
CHORUS.
Since Je - sus came in - to my heart! Since Je-sus came in - to my Since Je - sus came in, came heart Since Je-sus came in - to my heart. Floods of joy o'er my in - to my heart, Since Je-sus came in came in-to my heart soul like the sea bil-lows roll, Since Je-sus came in - to my heart.

Rev. F. E. Rockwell, Madrid, Iowa—Evangelism.

Territory—Its present territory includes the States of Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, and Nebraska, but looks forward toward additions to this, as the drawing power of Palmer College, located at Albany, Mo., shall be felt in a widening radius, and the Christian shall become a more important factor in the growth of the Kingdom in the Mississippi Valley. The college, formerly a ward of Iowa State Conference, outgrowing the territory of said conference and extending its vision far beyond its control, made necessary a commensurate guardianship and so the Western Christian Convention planned for in 1914, was given more perfectly organized form in 1915. Besides looking after the college interests, it looks after the taking over of some or all the interests of the State conferences within its territorial borders.

SOUTHERN GROUP

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

(Reported by Secretary Johnson)

Officers—Rev. W. W. Staley, Suffolk, Va.—President.
Rev. J. O. Atkinson, Elon College, N. C.—Vice-President.
Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va.—Secretary.
Rev. J. F. Morgan, Graham, N. C.—Assistant Secretary.
Dr. W. C. Wicker, Elon College, N. C.—Treasurer.

Territory—The Southern Christian Convention is composed of the following conferences: Virginia Valley Central Conference, A. W. Andes, Harrisonburg, Va., Secretary; Georgia and Alabama Conference, J. F. Hill, Jr., Phoenix, Ala., Secretary; Alabama Conference, J. W. Payne, Wedowee, Ala, R. D. 3, Secretary; Eastern Virginia Conference, Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va., Secretary; Western North Carolina Conference, Rev. J. W. Patton, Elon College, N. C., Secretary; N. C. and Virginia Conference, W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C., Secretary; Eastern North Carolina Conference, Rev. W. C. Wicker, Elon College, N. C., Secretary.

In accordance with the Convention recommendations, all the conferences have organized local Conference Missionary Associations. These associations have been officered in the manner of the Convention Association. By the plans thus inaugurated the funds for home missions will be greatly increased. As regards foreign missions, there is a steady growth of interest. A special call was made upon the conferences for missions at the late session of the Convention.

The report of the Committee on Schools and Colleges, made at Elon College, N. C., shows Elon College to be highly successful and the endowment increased to $30,000. That the churches composing the Convention pay a fixed sum annually of $2,500 for Elon College. Thus the college is freed from embarrassment as to its future progress.

The last session of the Convention was held in Portsmouth, Va., and there was a marked increase in the missionary spirit. The Convention meets biennially and will meet again in May, 1916.

Faith for the College Man

By
Martyn Summerbell, D. D., LL. D.,
Author of
"Religion in College Life,"
"Special Services for Ministers," Etc.

This Book Published Sept. 27, 1915

Dr. Summerbell is President of Palmer Institute-Starkey Seminary, and Vice-President of Defiance College. In this volume of college sermons he presents plain gospel truths in a manner to interest and strengthen the faith of his hearers and readers, in the simple religion of Jesus, with the object of assisting to a deeper trust in their Savior, and a more active service for the kingdom. Those familiar with Dr. Summerbell's work and preaching know that he accomplishes his purposes along these lines.

This book of sermons is for people who think, particularly young people of that sort, and a guide to religious thinking along lines that will stand investigation. It should be in all our Sunday-school libraries, owned by all our ministers, and easily accessible to their thoughtful young people.

The chapter titles are:—

1. The Faith in Revelation.
2. The Faith Revealed in Christ.
3. Faith Confirmed in Youth.
4. Faith the Guardian of Youth.
5. Faith Divinely Simple.
6. Faith That Builds Character.
7. Faith and Science in Concord.
8. The Faith in Sincerity.
9. Faith Outshining.
10. Faith's Impulse to Mercy.
11. Faith Ever Developing.
12. Faith's Heavenly Treasure.

It contains 237 pages, is handsomely bound, red cloth, and will be sent postpaid for $1.00 per copy.

Evenings With Uncle 'Bijah

OR CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

This is the latest book by the author of "Herbert Brown" and "Dick Haley." It is a dialog between Rev. Richard Grote, A. M., D. D., pastor of a popular church, and Uncle 'Bijah, a practical, cultured old gentleman of the highest character, whose family are members of the different churches, though he himself is not a member of any church. The minister, knowing Uncle 'Bijah's sterling character and high standing in the community, is moved by his interest in him to ask for a full statement of his views and reasons for remaining out of the church, which Uncle 'Bijah rather reluctantly agrees to give. In doing so he does not use a harsh word, his logic is sharp and convincing, there is keen wit and irresistible humor, and best of all a powerful unanswerable argument for Christian Fellowship.

Contains 106 pages, is printed on good eggshell paper, and attractively bound in cloth. Price, 50c per copy, postpaid. Money back if not satisfied with the book after reading it.

The Christians and the Great Commission

BY JOSIAH G. BISHOP

Do you want facts? Valuable facts,
Reliable facts, Comprehensive facts,
Historical facts, Missionary facts?
Then secure "The Christians and the Great Commission."

Do you want information? Do you want valuation?
Do you want inspiration? Do you want condensation?
Then secure "The Christians and the Great Commission."
Do you want to know what the Christians have done,

In mission fields, How it was done,
Who did it, When was it done?
Then secure "The Christians and the Great Commission."

No greater book has yet been published by the Christians. Dr. Bishop has rendered a real service to the Church; he is to be congratulated, even praised; he has been patient, painstaking, thorough; he does not exaggerate; he does not abbreviate, and he does not eliminate. He writes the story of missions as carried on by the Christians for the first hundred years of their history; he traces most carefully, accurately, definitely, thoroughly, the development of the spirit and plan of the Church in the matter of missions, so that the tiniest rill that rose in a conference session in remote periods of our history may be followed until it loses itself in the broader, deeper stream of the plans of the whole body. His methods are critical and his conclusions trustworthy.

The author talks little of himself, but gives us a vivid picture of ourselves and an extended story of our work in the home land and the other land for all the years we have lived.

"I have not yet found a book the value of which (for ourselves as a people) I should be willing to place above 'The Christians and the Great Commission,' by Rev. Josiah Goodman Bishop, D. D., whose years, experience, spirit, intelligence, scholarship, and service combine to make him the man to speak and write upon the subject of missions."

Thirty chapters, 304 pages, handsomely illustrated, thoroughly indexed, printed with large type on extra good paper, and bound in dark red cloth. Price, postpaid, $1.00 per copy.
